

Who We Are:

If you are a low income taxpayer who cannot afford professional tax assistance during audits of your federal income tax return, you may qualify for help from Low Income Taxpayer Clinics or other organizations that provide free assistance in tax disputes.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics (LITCs) represent low income taxpayers before the Internal Revenue Service in audit, appeals, and collection issues, for free or for a nominal charge.

Low Income Taxpayer Clinics receive partial funding from the IRS. However, the clinics and their volunteers are completely independent of and are not associated with the federal government. These clinics are operated by nonprofit organizations or academic institutions.

Each clinic independently decides if you meet its income guidelines and other criteria before it agrees to represent you.
